Did you receive any single donation exceeding €634.87 in value, or donations from the same person exceeding €634.87 in aggregate value, in relation to the Dáil General Election of 25 February 2011? If your answer is YES, you must list the donation(s) on the following page.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Insert [✓] as appropriate)

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

A candidate at the Dáil General Election must open and maintain a political donations account on receipt of a monetary donation of more than €126.97. Candidates must also complete the Certificate of Monetary Donations in addition to this form.

3. Details of Donations

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

Did you receive any single donation exceeding €634.87 in value, or donations from the same person exceeding €634.87 in aggregate value, in relation to the Dáil General Election of 25 February 2011? If your answer is YES, you must list the donation(s) on the following page.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Insert [✓] as appropriate)

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

2. Donations
Did you receive any single donation exceeding €634.87 in value, or donations from the same person exceeding €634.87 in aggregate value, in relation to the Dáil General Election of 25 February 2011? If your answer is YES, you must list the donation(s) on the following page.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Insert [✓] as appropriate)

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

3. Details of Donations

The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

If your answer is YES, you must list the donation(s) on the following page.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Insert [✓] as appropriate)

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

Did you receive any single donation exceeding €634.87 in value, or donations from the same person exceeding €634.87 in aggregate value, in relation to the Dáil General Election of 25 February 2011? If your answer is YES, you must list the donation(s) on the following page.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Insert [✓] as appropriate)

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

Did you receive any single donation exceeding €634.87 in value, or donations from the same person exceeding €634.87 in aggregate value, in relation to the Dáil General Election of 25 February 2011? If your answer is YES, you must list the donation(s) on the following page.	Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> (Insert [✓] as appropriate)

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT

If your answer is YES, you must list the donation(s) on the following page.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> (Insert [✓] as appropriate)

NOTES:

i) DONATIONS IN EXCESS OF THE LIMIT

A candidate at a Dáil General Election is prohibited from accepting, in any calendar year, a donation exceeding €2,539.48 in value, or donations exceeding €2,539.48 in aggregate value from the same person. The values of all donations received from the same person in the same calendar year should be aggregated and treated as a single donation.

If you received a donation with a value in excess of the limit, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the donor within 14 days of receipt. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission of such receipt and remit the donation, or that part of a monetary donation which exceeds the limit, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

ii) FOREIGN DONATIONS

A political donation, of any value, cannot be accepted from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland, or from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

If you received a foreign donation, the legislation provides that you:

- return the donation to the donor, within 14 days of receipt, and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required by it, or
- notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission within 14 days of receipt.

iii) POLITICAL DONATIONS ACCOUNT
