9. OTHER INTERESTS

In line with the provisions of Section 30 of the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995, voluntary statements in respect of any interests not specified in the Second Schedule to that Act (i.e. other than those specified at 1. to 8. above), and which are held by you may be listed here if it is considered that such interests could materially influence you in or in relation to the performance of your official duties.
OBLIGATIONS TO DISCLOSE A MATERIAL INTEREST IN AN OFFICIAL FUNCTION AND NOT TO ENGAGE IN CERTAIN ACTIVITIES

I am also aware of the obligations placed on me by sections 19(3)(a)(ii)\textsuperscript{10} and 19(3)(a)(iii)\textsuperscript{11} of the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995 and of the requirement to furnish a statement of interests not later than 28 days from the date on which the office holder to whom I act as a special adviser ceases to hold that office.

I understand that this form will be laid before the Oireachtas and that, under the Standing Orders relative to Public Business of Dáil Éireann and also of Seanad Éireann, it is considered public.

Signed: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________
NOTES

1 which could materially influence you in or in relation to the performance of the functions of a special adviser by reason of the fact that such performance could so affect those interests as to confer on or withhold from you a substantial benefit.

2 "holding" does not include money in a current, deposit or other similar account with a financial institution.

3 "company" means any body corporate;

4 "shadow directorship" means the position held by a person who is a shadow director within the meaning of the Companies Acts 1963 to 1990, or, in the case of a public body that is not a company (within the meaning of the Companies Act 1963) and is specified in subparagraph (8), (9), (10), (11), or (12), or stands prescribed for the purposes of subparagraph (13), of paragraph 1 of the First Schedule to the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995, the position held by the person in accordance with whose instructions or directions, the members of the body, or the members of the board or other body that controls manages or administers that body, are accustomed to act.

5 but excluding any interest in land consisting of any private home of the person or of his or her spouse or civil partner, that is to say, a building or part of a building that is occupied by the person or his or her spouse or a child of the person or of the spouse as a separate dwelling and any garden or other land usually occupied with the dwelling, being land that is subsidiary or ancillary to it, is required for its amenity or convenience and is not being used or developed primarily for commercial purposes.

6 but excluding:

(a) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment provided -

(i) within the State, or

(ii) in the course and for the purpose of:

- the performance of the functions of the person as a special adviser, or

- the trade, profession, employment, vocation or other occupation of the person (other than as a special adviser); or

(b) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment supplied to the person by a relative or civil partner or friend of the person, or of his or her spouse or civil partner, or of a child of the person or of his or her spouse, where such supply was in the nature of a gift to the person and for personal reasons only, unless the acceptance of such facilities, accommodation, meals or entertainment might reasonably be seen to have been capable of influencing him or her in the performance of his or her functions as a special adviser;

(c) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment supplied to the person, once or more than once by the same person during the period comprehended by this statement, free of charge if the commercial price, or the aggregate of the commercial prices, of the facilities, accommodation, meals or entertainment did not exceed €650; or

(d) travel facilities, living accommodation, meals or entertainment supplied to the person, once or more than once by the same person during the period comprehended by this statement, at a price or prices less than the commercial price or prices by not more than €650.

2 but excluding:

(i) a gift given to the person by a relative or civil partner or friend of the person or of his or her spouse or civil partner or of a child of the person or his or her spouse for purely personal reasons only,
unless the acceptance of the gift by the person could have materially influenced him or her in the performance of his or her functions as a special adviser; and

(ii) a gift given to the person, or gifts given to the person by the same person, during the period comprehended by the statement, as respects which the value, or the aggregate value, of the property the subject of the gift or gifts did not exceed €650 at any time during the period comprehended by the statement.

8 other than property supplied or lent or a service supplied to a person by a relative or civil partner or friend of the person or of his or her spouse or civil partner or of a child of the person or of his or her spouse where such supply or loan was in the nature of a gift to the person and for personal reasons only unless the acceptance of the property or loan or the service by the person could have materially influenced him or her in the performance of his or her functions as a special adviser.

9 insofar as services in (ii) and (iii) relate to legal or medical services (including psychiatric or psychological services), it is only necessary to state that such services were supplied to you or to a person (who need not be identified) in respect of whom you are required to make a statement.

10 in any case where a function as a special adviser falls to be performed and the special adviser has actual knowledge that he or she, or a connected person within the meaning of the Ethics in Public Office Act 1995 and section 97 of the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010, has a material interest in a matter to which the function relates, he or she shall prepare and furnish to the office holder who appointed the special adviser, or on whose behalf the appointment was made, and to the Standards in Public Office Commission a statement in writing of those facts and shall not perform the function unless there are compelling reasons requiring him or her to do so. If the special adviser proposes to perform the function, he or she shall prepare and furnish to the office holder and to the Standards Commission a statement in writing of the compelling reasons aforesaid.

11 If the remuneration of a special adviser exceeds a prescribed amount (currently the second long service increment point of the higher executive officer standard (non-personal pension contribution) scale in the Civil Service), the special adviser shall undertake not to engage in any trade, profession, vocation or other occupation, whether remunerated or otherwise, which might reasonably be seen to be capable of interfering or being incompatible with the performance by the person of his or her functions as a special adviser.

Additional information

Additional information on the requirements of the Ethics Acts and further relevant definitions are set out in the Standards in Public Office Commission’s guidelines for public servants on compliance with the provisions of the Ethics in Public Office Acts 1995 and 2001. In addition to the guidelines, public servants may seek information or advice from the Standards in Public Office Commission (tel: 01 639 5666; e-mail: sipo@sipo.gov.ie) concerning any provision of the legislation or the application of any such provision in any particular case.
19.—(1) In this section “special adviser” means a person who—

(a) occupies or occupied a position to which section 7(1)(e) of the Public Service Management (Recruitment and Appointments) Act 2004 relates, having been selected for appointment to that position by an office holder personally otherwise than by means of a competitive procedure, or

(b) is or was employed under a contract for services by an office holder, having been selected for the award of the contract by an office holder personally otherwise than by means of a competitive procedure, and whose function or principal function as such a person is or was to provide advice or other assistance to or for the office holder.

(2) The period for which a person acting as a special adviser occupies the excluded position concerned or is employed under the contract for services concerned shall end not later than the date on which the office holder to whom he or she is acting as a special adviser ceases to hold the office by reference to which he or she is an office holder.

(3) (a) If the remuneration of a person as a special adviser exceeds a prescribed amount, then—

(i) subject to section 20 (3), in each year during any part of which the person is a special adviser, he or she shall prepare and furnish to the office holder concerned and the Commission a statement in writing of—

(I) the interests of the person, and

(II) the interests of which he or she has actual knowledge of his or her spouse or civil partner or a child of the person or of his or her spouse, during the appropriate period specified in section 20 (1) which could materially influence the person in or in relation to the performance of his or her functions as a special adviser by reason of the fact that such performance could so affect those interests as to confer on or withhold from the person or the spouse or civil partner or child a substantial benefit,
(ii) in any case where such a function falls to be performed and he or she has knowledge that he or she or a connected person has a material interest in a matter to which the function relates, he or she—

(I) shall, as soon as may be, prepare and furnish to the office holder and to the Commission a statement in writing of those facts,

(II) shall not perform the function unless there are compelling reasons requiring him or her to do so, and

(II) shall, if he or she proposes to perform the function, prepare and furnish to the office holder and the Commission, before or, if that is not reasonably possible, as soon as may be after such performance, a statement in writing of the compelling reasons aforesaid,

and

(iii) the person shall undertake not to engage in any trade, profession, vocation or other occupation, whether remunerated or otherwise, which might reasonably be seen to be capable of interfering or being incompatible with the performance by the person of his or her functions as a special adviser.

(b) Different amounts may be prescribed under paragraph (a) in relation to different categories of special adviser.

(4) An office holder shall, in respect of a person who acts or acted as a special adviser to him or her, lay the following documents before each House of the Oireachtas, that is to say—

(a) a copy of the contract, or a statement in writing of the terms and conditions, under which the person acts or acted as a special adviser,

(b) a copy of any statement under subsection (3) (a) (i) of the interests of the person furnished to the office holder,

(c) a statement as to whether the person is a relative of the office holder, and

(d) if subsection (3) applies to the person, a statement of the qualifications of the person relevant to his or her functions as a special adviser.

(6) There shall be deemed to be included in the terms on which a person who is acting as a special adviser to an office holder occupies the excluded position concerned or is employed under the contract for services concerned—

(a) a term that the period for which the person occupies the excluded position or is employed under the contract for services shall end not later than the date on which the office holder ceases to hold the office by reference to which he or she is an office holder, and

(b) if subsection (3) applies to the person, a term that he or she shall comply with that subsection.

(7) Subsection (4) shall be complied with not later than 60 days after the person concerned was appointed to act as a special adviser and, in case a document referred to in paragraph (b) of that subsection is furnished to the office holder concerned at any time after the expiration of the period aforesaid, not later than 60 days after that time, and such compliance shall, in a case where the office holder concerned dies or becomes incapacitated, be effected by the Taoiseach.
